We respond to misbehaviors and conflicts in an appropriate manner. We have zero-tolerance for violence and bullying; we follow the school or district policy in which the programs is held. We have the right to suspend or expel children from our programs if they or their families threaten the safety or interfere with the sustainability of a quality program. When misbehaviors occur, we will redirect behaviors, discuss the situation, and suggest a more appropriate course of action. We will also develop a guidance plan and when necessary, meet with families to resolve the misbehavior. If inappropriate behavior continues, it might be necessary to implement consequences such as loss of privilege or a brief separation from the group.
